Re: Morris Pasternak
SM-C

cc - 100-13645 (N.E.)

Typewritten letter dated Sept. 24, 1946 addressed to Robert Thompson, State Secretary, CPUSA starting "Dear Comrade Thompson" and signed "Comrade yours, Morris Pasternak, Member of a Shop Branch (U.F.) Queens County". The letter is a protest against the manner in which the recent Madison Square Garden meeting commemorating the 27th Anniversary of the Party was handled.

Sept. 24, 1946

Robert Thompson,
State Secretary, C.P.U.S.A.

Dear Comrade Thompson:

I want to register a sharp and indignant protest against the manner in which the recent Madison Square Garden meeting commemorating the 27th Anniversary of our Party was handled organizationally. That meeting should have been a model of dignity, decorum and utter seriousness befitting such a meeting.

I refer particularly to the scandalous way in which the audience behaved during the collection in particular and its general behaviour as well, even while comrade Eugene Dennis was speaking. The audience should be criticized for its undignified behaviour because it consisted largely of Party members and even those who are not can and will accept criticism. However, the Arrangements Committee deserves even sharper criticism for its complete lack of organization in that it permitted such unheard of and scandalous confusion.

In sharp contrast to our meeting was the gathering of the All-Slav Congress at the Garden last Sunday. I was at that meeting. Here was a group of workers, who are not frequent Garden visitors, behaving in a dignified manner, while our meeting was almost akin to hooliganism.

I recall that a good number of years ago we had a similar situation with our Garden meetings as that described by me above. A number of organizational steps were taken and the situation was soon remedied. I can recall only the outstanding measures taken. I offer them to you, as follows:

1. A sharp self-critical communication was sent to all branches to be read at the meetings.
2. A large Arrangements Committee was organized consisting of all leading Party forces to act as Marshalls, Captains, Ushers and collectors. This Committee was in personal charge of the District Org. Sec and was drilled for at least three hours before the meeting at the Garden proper.
3. At that time we did not use the Garden uniformed ushers, but our own, consisting of resolute and responsible comrades. This saved the Party money, as well as a guarantee of order.
4. The first remarks of the Chairman of the Garden meeting was a comradely and friendly admonition to the audience about their previous behaviour and appeal for explicit discipline and cooperation.

The above method worked beautifully and we had meetings that were a source of personal joy to those attending, as well as a credit to our Party.

I hope that my harking back to the past will not cause anyone to refer to me as "an old timer" (of which I am very proud). I think we can still learn from the past. I particularly hope that our next Garden meeting will be a great improvement over the last one. But something will have to be done. It will not come spontaneously.

Comradely yours,
Morris Pasternak
Member of a Shop Branch (U.E.)
Queens County

Recalled receiving note, probably before July all on vacation from July 17 to July 31. Therefore note received before then.

On vacation went to Camp Unity. Saw

Edith Levitov & Louis Pasternak there.

Did not discuss note with them.

Note in envelope - don't recall what address was or outside. Not Pasternak.

Note was handprinted. doesn't recall whether in ink or pencil.
admitted note contained address & different name for Sobell where he could be seen.

Speakers were the following:
BEN DAVIS, EUGENE DENNIS, EDNA WINSTON AND FOSTER
Paul Robeson sang.

ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG was the master of ceremonies but didn't speak much. He introduced CHARNEY who was chairman upstairs. JAMES FORD was chairman downstairs.

BEN DAVIS spoke about 45 minutes.

Of note in DAVIS' speech was that he paid tribute to KHRUSHCHEV and that he stated he was the father of the idea that their ends could be achieved by parliamentary means. DAVIS said it was nothing new to them as they had been doing this: that FOSTER was the father of the idea before KHRUSHCHEV mentioned it. DAVIS said that even at the time of the Foley Square trial FOSTER said this was the line of the people in the U.S. and that they did not take themselves upon the inevitability of revolution but that it could be done by parliamentary means.

FROM : SA [REDACTED] b7c

SUBJECT: Morris T. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] - C

On 11/22/60, a reprint of an article entitled "The Paris Meeting on Soviet Jewry," from the 10/10/60 issue of "The New Leader," was mailed anonymously to the subject under the Counterintelligence Program.

The article, which was written by ALFRED SHERMAN, described a recent "Conference on the Plight of Soviet Jewry" held in Paris and attended by left-wingers, neutralists, fellow-travelers, non-political individuals and Zionists. All those in attendance signed a resolution highly critical of the Soviet Union and its discrimination of the Jews.

Any reaction to this mailing by the subject or tangible results received from it should be promptly called to the attention of the Agent handling the Counterintelligence Program (100-129802) Section 41.
